FAMILY CHILD CARE HOME FACILITIES IMPROVEMENT INITIATIVE (FCCHI)

TOTAL IMPACT REPORT

January 2020-December 2021

- 345 Applications
- $1.6M Requested
- 105 Awards
- $399K Awarded

Grant Recipients

- 773 Impacted Children
- Increased Capacity by 34%
- Across 32 Counties

Funding High Priorities

- Start-up costs, fencing, heating, windows, concrete repairs, shade, fall zones, health and safety licensing concerns

Reaching Communities in Need

- 52% of awards were made in child care deserts

Family child care homes provide critical access for infants and toddlers in Colorado.

This program addresses the declining number of licensed slots within family child care homes and improves the quality of home based learning environments.
153 Applications
$765K Requested
60 Awards
$240K Awarded

1. Applications: 153
2. Requested Funding: $765K
3. Awards: 60
4. Awarded Funding: $240K

Grant Recipients

- Impacted Children: 445
- Increased Capacity by 21%
- Across 19 Counties

Start-up costs, fencing, heating, windows, concrete repairs, shade, fall zones, health and safety licensing concerns

Funding High Priorities

Family child care homes provide critical access for infants and toddlers in Colorado.

This program addresses the declining number of licensed slots within family child care homes and improves the quality of home-based learning environments.

2021 IMPACT REPORT

Across Communities in Need

52% of awards were made in child care deserts.
FAMILY CHILD CARE HOME FACILITIES IMPROVEMENT INITIATIVE (FCCHI)

2020 PROGRAM IMPACT

189 Applications
$855K Requested
45 Awards
$160K Awarded

328 Children Impacted
47% Increase in Capacity
Across 28 Counties

Awarded Programs

Start-up costs, fencing, heating, windows, concrete repairs, shade, fall zones, health and safety licensing concerns

Funding High Priorities

Reaching Communities in Need

60% of awards were made in child care deserts

Family child care homes provide critical access for infants and toddlers in Colorado.

This program addresses the declining number of licensed slots within family child care homes and improves the quality of home based learning environments.